

Project 01 – Movie Application - Marking Rubric

Criteria	Grunt 40	Padawan 60	Ninja 80	Wizard 100	Score
All instructions followed in regard to project submission	- Failed to follow submission instructions -Project was unable to be run	- Failed to follow submission instructions -Project could be installed and run	- Submission instructions followed -Link to the live website does not work or no link was provided	- Submission instructions followed -Link to the live website was provided and the link to the website works	10
Application specifications fulfilled	- Several key application features missing -Application features not functioning	- 1 or 2 key application features missing - Some application features buggy	-All application features present -Some application features buggy	-All application features present -All application features work without bugs	10
Design & usability of the web site	- Application is unusable at desktop or mobile screen sizes - Unable to navigate around the application	- Application is usable at a basic level - UI elements not in alignment - Text content is difficult to read	- Application works well from mobile up to desktop screen sizes - Some UI elements do not match the overall design of the application - Text content is readable	- Application works well from mobile up to desktop screen sizes - UI is fully polished with care taken to make sure all elements of the application follow a consistent design theme - Text content is a pleasure to read	20
Quality of the code	- File structure of application is disorganized - Web safe filename conventions not followed - Code is difficult to read	- File structure is good -Some improvement needed in making the code more modular - Code is not properly indented	- File structure is well organized - Code is modular - Well defined functions present - Code is nicely commented and formatted	- File structure is well organized with good use of folders for better organization - Functions are well defined - Global variables are saved to a separate file - Code is nicely commented and formatted	20